"You're Invited" February 16, 2020 - Susan Kent

Gather

- What is the most important invitation you've ever received? (It might be to someone's wedding or even a casual coffee that was significant in your life, or a job offer, etc.)

Plant

- Read Isaiah 55:1-2. When have you felt spiritually thirsty or even "parched"? Where or how did you find a way to be satisfied? Was it going somewhere? Or was it something a person did to help?
- Which part of your life demands the most from you right now?
- What are some of the excuses that you usually use to not "feast" on God's words or to not spend time with God?

Grow

- Read Isaiah 55:3-5. There were three roles that were listed. How do you see these played out in your life?
  - A witness gives evidence. What part of your life gives evidence of your faith and God's promises?
  - A leader stands in front. Who do you look to as a spiritual leader in your life? How are you a leader for someone else?
  - A commander gives the charge. Which scriptures do you lean on to give you direction in your life?

Harvest

- Read Isaiah 55:8-9. What do these verses mean to you? How is God's plan better than yours?
- What is the best invitation that God has given you?

Prayers

- In the message this week we heard the challenge to offer just one invitation to one person this week. During your prayer time, share where you think God is leading you to offer that invitation and then pray for that interaction so you can share with one another next week.
